FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Romanucci & Blandin, LLC Promotes Martin Gould to Associate Attorney

CHICAGO, IL (March 3, 2015) – Romanucci & Blandin, LLC, a leading personal injury and civil trial practice law firm in Chicago, proudly appoints Martin Gould to associate attorney. Prior to this recent appointment, Gould served as law clerk for the firm and contributed to cases concerning police misconduct and excessive force, sexual abuse and auto accidents.

“We are pleased to have Marty on our team as an associate attorney,” said Antonio Romanucci, Principal and Partner at Romanucci & Blandin. “Marty has demonstrated his dedication to serving those who have suffered from negligence or wrongdoing. He is a tremendous asset to our team.”

Through his law clerk appointments, Marty has focused primarily on personal injury, police misconduct and product liability matters. Marty’s legal experience also encompasses contracts, bankruptcy, labor and employment law matters, which he learned as a semester associate at a local business law firm. His passion for helping victims of injustice inspired his commitment to become a personal injury attorney.

Marty Gould graduated Cum Laude from Chicago-Kent College of Law and was a published member of the CHICAGO-KENT LAW REVIEW. He also was a Legal Writing Teaching Assistant and six-time recipient of the CALI Award for receiving the highest grade in Legal Writing I-III, Illinois Evidence, Pre-Trial Civil Litigation, and Conflicts of Law. Marty was on the social committee of the Student Bar Association and the former President of Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity, where he helped plan numerous philanthropic events including a blood drive and a talent-show fundraiser for the Wounded Warrior’s Project. Currently, Marty volunteers his time on the Justice Council for the Center of Wrongful Convictions, a Northwestern Law School-based organization that works toward identifying and rectifying wrongful convictions and other serious miscarriages of justice. He is a member of the “Young Alumni Council” for Chicago-Kent College of Law and an active member of the Illinois Trials Lawyers Association. Additionally, Marty is a member of the Advocates Society – The Association of Polish-American Attorneys.

Prior to his legal career, Marty interned at an international business firm for two years drafting business plans and conducting market research. He earned his bachelor’s degree in political science from Northwestern University, where he was also a four-year member of the varsity wrestling team.
