FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Romanucci & Blandin, LLC Promotes Rebecca Neubauer to Associate Attorney

CHICAGO, IL (March 3, 2015) – Romanucci & Blandin, LLC, a leading personal injury and civil trial practice law firm in Chicago, proudly appoints Rebecca Neubauer to associate attorney. Prior to this recent appointment, Neubauer served as law clerk for the firm and contributed to cases concerning police misconduct, excessive force and school bullying and hazing.

“We welcome the addition of Rebecca on our team as an associate attorney,” said Stephan Blandin, Principal and Partner at Romanucci & Blandin. “Rebecca has proven herself a dedicated legal advocate of those who have been wrongly abused or neglected, and we look forward to her support on behalf of our clients.”

Rebecca Neubauer began her tenure at Romanucci & Blandin as a law clerk in late 2013 following law clerk appointments since 2012 at other Chicago-based law firms. At these firms, her work focused on plaintiffs’ personal injury, medical malpractice, and sexual abuse matters. Rebecca also clerked for the Honorable Elizabeth M. Budzinski, Cook County Circuit Court, where she prepared judicial opinions on civil cases. Rebecca’s passion for helping those who have suffered injustices inspired her to become a personal injury attorney.

Rebecca Neubauer earned her BA at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in political science with a minor in Middle Eastern studies. She graduated from Chicago-Kent College of Law, making Dean’s List throughout her law school tenure. She is a member of the Illinois State Bar Association, Chicago Bar Association, Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, and the Decalogue Society of Lawyers. In her spare time, Rebecca is an active fund-raiser and volunteer for the Young Leadership Division of the Jewish United Fund.
