FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April, 2009

Michael E. Holden, of Chicago, has joined the Chicago law firm of Romanucci & Blandin, LLC, as an associate.

Romanucci & Blandin provides clients with experienced and skilled representation in catastrophic personal injury, wrongful death and workers' compensation claims.

Prior to being named associate attorney, Holden spent two years at the firm as a law clerk. Before that, he was a legal intern at the Law Offices of Chicago-Kent College of Law.

He has experience in the litigation of personal injury cases, including medical malpractice, products liability, nursing-home negligence, premises liability, construction injury, and auto-accident cases.

Holden is certified as a mediator by the Center for Conflict Resolution and received his certification in Litigation and Dispute Resolution Program at Chicago-Kent College of Law. He is involved in several professional organizations including the Illinois State Bar Association, Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, American Association for Justice, Chicago Bar Association, and the Chicago Counsel for Lawyers.

He received his J.D. in 2008 from Chicago-Kent College of Law, and his B.S. degree in 2004 from the University of Wisconsin.
