Frank Sommario Re-Elected to Board of Governors Of Illinois State Bar Association

CHICAGO, IL – Frank A. Sommario, an associate attorney at the Chicago law firm of Romanucci & Blandin, LLC, has been re-elected to the Board of Governors of the Illinois State Bar Association (ISBA) for a three-year term. He ran unopposed for the under 37 Cook County position after completing his first three-year term. The 25-member board directs the operations and activities of the 33,000-member organization.

Sommario concentrates his practice in workers' compensation, personal injury, and medical malpractice.

He is a member of the ISBA Assembly and the Workers' Compensation Law Section Council, and a Silver Fellow of the Illinois Bar Foundation, the charitable affiliate of the ISBA.

In addition to the practice of law, Sommario is active in several professional and community organizations, including the Justinian Society of Lawyers, where he currently serves on the Executive Committee. He is also currently serving his second year as Treasurer of the Workers' Compensation Lawyers Association. For his successes representing injury victims, Sommario was named as one of Illinois' Rising Stars by Super Lawyers® for the year 2010 and once again for 2011.

A certified public accountant as well as a registered investment advisor, Sommario received his J.D. degree from DePaul University College of Law in 2000 and his B.S. degree from DePaul University in 1997.

The ISBA, with offices in Springfield and Chicago, provides professional services to Illinois lawyers, as well as education and services to the public.

Romanucci & Blandin, LLC, is located at 33 N. LaSalle St., Suite 2000, Chicago, IL 60602, contact www.rblaw.net or call (312) 458-1000.
