

Richard F. Pellegrino Joins Romanucci & Blandin as Counsel

FOR

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE March, 2010

Richard F. Pellegrino Joins Romanucci & Blandin as Counsel

CHICAGO, March 2010 - Richard F. Pellegrino, a trial lawyer in Chicago for more than 30 years, has joined Romanucci & Blandin, LLC, of Counsel.

Romanucci & Blandin concentrates its practice in catastrophic personal injury law including traumatic brain injuries, wrongful death, and workers' compensation. Established in 1998 by Antonio Romanucci and Stephan Blandin, the firm has recovered nearly $100 million for its clients.

For many years, Pellegrino administered his own general law practice with a primary concentration in personal injury representation. His extensive public service includes a current board position on the Pace Transportation Service Board, and executive director of both the West Central Municipal Conference and the West Cook County Solid Waste Agency. He served as the Mayor of the Village of Indian Head Park from 1999 to 2007 and is a past commissioner of the Cook County Sheriff's Police and Corrections Merit Board. He served as an adjunct instructor of Law and Latin at Nazareth Academy.

Pellegrino received his B.A. in political science/government in 1975 and an M.A. in 1985, both from Loyola University, and a law degree in 1978 from Washburn University School of Law in Topeka, Kansas. He served as a Sergeant in the U.S. Army in Vietnam and was awarded a Commendation Medal in 1972 for meritorious service.

Romanucci & Blandin is located at 33 N. LaSalle, Suite 2000, Chicago, IL 60602, contact www.rblaw.com or call (312) 458-1000.